

- Create a “Mobility Plan” that looks at traffic, sidewalks, bike routes and transit, and how they work together
- Work with the individual neighborhoods to develop small-scale master plans for the different sub-areas within Huntsville
- Develop Business Associations to help plan and advocate for neighborhood-level reinvestment
- Develop design guidelines to help beautify ugly corridors
- Small Business Incubators
- Creative/Maker Culture
- Stage the build-out of greenways to get more miles on the ground sooner
- Modify zoning code to support quality mixed-use development
- Develop an energy resiliency plan for the city
- Research Park Master Plan
- Create partnership between City and outside organization to plan and advocate for greenway development
- Market Huntsville as an Arts Destination
- Add recreational fields throughout the City
- Market Huntsville as a Craft Beer Destination
- Redevelop Madison Square
- Create Town and Gown Districts
- Study how to implement more extensive transit
- Libraries
- Do a pilot bike/transit project on the Holmes Avenue corridor connecting Downtown to CRP
- Modify zoning code to support more options for housing
- Look for pilot projects to implement bike corridors connecting key destinations
- Accelerate the build-out of John Hunt Park
- Through zoning and policy, support local agriculture and farm-to-table efforts
- Market the city as a recreation destination, and partner with local business to accelerate build-out of recreation infrastructure